There is no use in trying to sell DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, CROCKERY, Glass Ware, &c., cheaper than we can sell them—it can't be done, no how. The unparalleled success of this establishment comes from the fact that it is the

DODGING THE RESPONSIBILITY.—"Sir!" said Fieryfacias, the lawyer, to an unwilling witness, "do you say upon your oath, that Blimpkins is a dishonest man?"

"I didn't say he was ever accused of being an honest man, did I?" said Pipkins.

"Does the Court understand you to say, Mr. P. that the Plaintiff's reputation is bad?" inquired the Judge merely putting the question to keep his eyes open.

"I didn't say it was good, I reckon."

"Sir," said Fieryfacias, "sir-r, upon your oath: mind, upon your oath, you say that Blimpkins is a rogue, a villian, and a thief?"

"You say so," was Pip's reply.

"Haven't you said so?"

"Why, you have said it," said Pipkins, "what's the use of my repeating it?"

"Sir!" thundered Fieryfacias, the Demosthenean thunderer of Thumbtown, "sir, I charge you, upon your sworn oath, do you, or do you not say, that Blimpkins stole things?"

"No, sir," was the cautious reply of Pipkins, "I never said Blimpkins stole things; but I do say—He's got a way of finding things that nobody lost?"

"Sir-r," said Fieryfacias, you can retire;" and the court adjourned.

A queer-looking customer inserted his head into an auction store, and looking gravely at the "knight of the hammer," inquired,—

"Can I bid' sir?"

"Certainly," replied the auctioneer, "you can bid."

"Well, then," said the wag, walking off, "I bid," you good night.

THE PLATFORM
OF THE
SLAVERY COMPROMISE PARTIES, ALIAS, AN
ABSTRACT of the FUGITIVE LAW.

SECTION 1—Provides, That U. S. Commissioners may and "are required to exercise all the powers and duties conferred by this act."

SEC. 2—Provides, That the Superior Court of each organized Territory may appoint Commissioners, with the ordinary powers, and that such Commissioners shall also exercise the powers and duties conferred by this act.

SEC. 3—Provides, That the Circuit Courts of the U. S., and the Superior Court of each organized Territory shall, from time to time, increase the number of Commissioners, with a view to afford reasonable facilities for the reclaiming of fugitives, and for the prompt discharge of the duties imposed by this act.

SEC. 4—Provides, That the Commissioners shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the Judges of the Circuit and District Courts of the U. S., and with the Judges of the Superior Courts in the Territories, and shall, on satisfactory proof, grant certificates to the claimants of fugitives from labor, with authority to take such fugitives to the state or territory from which they may have escaped.

SEC. 5—Makes it the duty of the Marshall and Deputy Marshall to execute all warrants and precepts issued under this law, with a penalty of $1000, to be recovered for the use of the claimant, in case of refusal or neglect diligently to execute said process. It also makes the Marshall liable to the claimant on his official bond, for the full value of the labor and service of the fugitive in the state whence he fled, in case said fugitive shall escape from the Marshall or his deputy, after his arrest, whether with or without the assent of such Marshall or deputy; and also gives the Commissioner power to appoint suitable persons, from time to time, to execute the process issued by them, and also gives the Commissioners and the persons so appointed, power to call to their aid the posse comitatus, and commands all good citizens to aid and assist in the prompt and efficient execution of this law; and also provides that the warrants may be executed in any part of the state where they are issued.

SEC. 6—Provides, That when any person, owing service or labor, in any State or Territory, has heretofore or shall hereafter, escape into any other State or Territory, the person to whom such service or labor may be due, may pursue such fugitive, and may arrest him with process issued under this act, or may seize him WITHOUT PROCESS, where the same can be done, and cause him to be taken forthwith before the Court, Judge or Commissioner, who shall hear and determine the case of such claimant in a summary manner! and upon satisfactory proof being made by deposition or affidavit in writing, taken by such County Judge or Commissioner, or by other satisfactory testimony duly taken and certified by some Court, Judge, or Magistrate or other person authorized to administer an oath in the state whence such fugitive escaped, with the seal of the proper court or officer thereto attached, which seal should make such proof competent, and on further proof by affidavit of the identity of the person whose service or labor is claimed, that the person so arrested does in fact owe such service or labor to the claimant, and escaped from him into another state, it shall be the duty of the Court or Commissioner to deliver to the claimant a certificate, setting forth the substantial facts, &c., with authority to the claimant to use such reasonable force and restraint as may be necessary to take and remove such fugitive back to the State or Territory whence he escaped. It also provides that in no trial or hearing under this act shall the testimony of the fugitive be admitted, and that the certificates mentioned in this and the first section, shall be CONCLUSIVE of the right of the person to whom they are granted to take back such fugitive, and shall prevent all molestation of such person or persons by ANY PROCESS issued by any court, judge, magistrate or other person whomsoever. [This annuls the writ of Habeas corpus.—ED. FREE DEM.]

SEC. 7. Provides that any person who shall knowingly hinder or prevent the claimant, or any one assisting him, from arresting or seizing the fugitive, either with or without process, or who shall rescue or attempt to rescue the fugitive after his arrest; or shall aid, abet or assist him, either directly or indirectly in escaping; or shall harbor and conceal him so as to prevent his discovery or arrest, after notice or knowledge of his being a fugitive from labor, shall, for either of said offences be subject to a fine, not exceeding one thousand dollars, and to imprisonment not exceeding six months, and shall forfeit to the claimant One Thousand Dollars for each fugitive so lost.

SEC. 8. Provides for the payment of the fees of the Commissioner and officers. The Commissioners to have Ten Dollars in case the fugitive is delivered up, and only Five Dollars in case he is set free; the other officers to have usual and reasonable fees, the whole to be paid by the claimant, his agent or attorney.

SEC. 9. Provides that on affidavit of the claimant that he fears a rescue, the officer making the arrest shall retain the fugitive in his custody, and transport him to the State whence he fled, and deliver him there to the claimant, his agent or attorney, employing sufficient force for that purpose; and that the expenses shall be paid out of the treasury of the United States!

SEC. 10. Provides, that on the escape of any fugitive, the owner may go before some court of record or judge, in vacation, in the State or Territory whence he fled, and make satisfactory proof of the escape, and that the person escaping owed service or labor, and that the court or judge should make a record of these facts, giving with reasonable certainty a description of the fugitive; and that a transcript of this record, duly authenticated, shall be conclusive evidence in any other State or Territory, of the fact of escape, and of the owing service or labor, and shall require the Commissioner or other officer on further proof of the identity of the person arrested with the description in the record, to deliver him up, with a proviso that a transcript should not be required, but that, in its absence, the claim should be heard on other proofs.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—Gilbert Jacobs was struck by lightning, on Wednesday last, near Tremainesville, Ohio. The fluid singed the hair of his head considerably, burnt a whisker completely off his cheek, blistered his neck and back, and tore open the lower part of one of his boots, leaving him apparently dead. He was resuscitated by the aid of cold water and constant rubbing for half an hour.

Lake Shore Railroad.

MR. C. R. ALTON, Chief Engineer of the Green Bay, Milwaukee and Chicago Railroad, has laid before the Board of Directors his first report. It relates to the survey of this road, between this city the southern boundary line of the State—a distance of 38¾ miles. Mr. Alton states, that of this distance 12¼ miles would be level, 5¾ would have grades under 10 feet to the mile, thirteen, grades between 10 and 30 feet, and 7, grades between 30 and 35 feet—that the cost of this length of the road, laid with a heavy T rail, would be $551,579. He has likewise estimated the length and cost of the road from Milwaukee to Green Bay, putting the distance at 115 miles, and the cost at $1,725,000. The length of this road from here to Chicago being 85, consequently the whole route, from Chicago to Green Bay, is just 200 miles in length. The initiatory steps towards the construction of a Railroad between this place and Fond du Lac—a distance of 60 miles—have been taken. The distance from Chicago to Fond du Lac, via Milwaukee, is only 145 miles, while by the Rock River Valley route it is 190 miles, or 45 miles further. Now it is self-evident, that the interests of this city demand that a Railroad be constructed—not only from here to Chicago, but also from here to Fond du Lac, as speedily as possible, and to the accomplishment of this object should our whole energies be devoted. The moment we form a connection with Fond du Lac, by Railway, that moment we make a large and extremely fertile portion of Northern Wisconsin tributary to Milwaukee, which will vastly enhance the business of the city and the value of its property.

The Death of Robert Rantoul, Jr.

The public has been surprised and deeply pained by the sudden and unexpected announcement of the death of the Hon. ROBERT RANTOUL, JR. He died at Washington, on the 8th inst., after a very brief illness, of the malignant erysipelas. In his death the country has lost one of its first men, and the cause of liberty an eloquent friend and advocate. For that he was at heart the friend of liberty, we cannot doubt, whatever opinion we may have of the correctness of his late position. And that he has done good service in the cause, all can testify who have read his late speeches, both in and out of Congress, on this question.—Let us remember with gratitude and admiration that he has done many things well, and forget in charity, if we believe it, that he might have done some things better.—Let great men, when they see their fellow-man stricken down thus suddenly, in the vigor of his manhood, remember that they, too, must fall; and reflect how short-sighted it is, for the sake of transient rank and honors, to neglect that fair and lasting fabric of renown which can be gained only by the unshrinking discharge of duty.

☞ The Potosi Signal strongly opposes the adoption of the Banking Bill. We clip the following paragraph from its article in reference to this bill, not to show the editor's position on the question, but to let the public see what a humane and liberal principled being controls the columns of the Potosi Signal. The allusion to abolitionists, seems to us, to be wholly uncalled for, and unjustifiable. However we suppose this editor comes within friend Densmore's category of "printer editors." Still we would not denounce him, or say aught against him, for we always feel to pity from our innermost, the man who has the heart to give utterance to such taunting expressions, against any class of people who have the slightest claims to honorable treatment. Here is the extract:

"We presume the abolitionists will all vote for this bill; for there is no way of freeing the blacks only to get the whites reduced to a degree of slavery below them. Whenever the white laborer comes to that point, he will do the work at less cost than the blacks. Then, and not till then will the blacks be left at liberty."

IOWA ELECTION.—Des Moines county is reported to have gone Whig, by 40 or 50 majority on the State ticket, and nearly the entire Whig ticket is successful. Clark (D.) candidate for Congress, has 36 majority.

Muscatine county has gone democratic by 30 majority. Scott county also democratic.

Louisa county—Whig by 40 majority.—Cook (whig) ahead of Clark some 75 votes.

Henry County—two democrats and one whig elected to the House. Whig Senator elected. State whig ticket 200 majority.—Viele's majority over Henn some 130.

WELL POSTED UP.—The first returns of the elections in Wisconsin and Iowa, look squally for whiggery.—Syracuse Standard.

We would inquire of the Standard when the election took place in Wisconsin, as we did not know that it had yet passed. Furthermore hunkerism is welcome to all the consolation it can draw from the result of the election in Iowa, as the returns indicate a partial whig triumph. For the information of the Standard, we will state that our Judicial election takes place on the 27th of September, and our Presidential, on the 2d of November.

☞ During the month of July there were 318 commitments to the county jail in Pittsburgh Penn.

☞ The report of the death of Mr. R. Sands, the Circus man, is contradicted.

A NOBLE WOMAN.—Years ago, when most all grocers sold Liquid Fire, a firm in this city who had been doing a very large business, especially in the rum line, became bankrupt. One of the firm, who is now a very worthy man, went home and told his wife that he was a bankrupt. "Well," says the lady, "there is one consolation about it—and that is, the profits of the rum business will not disgrace our children."—Battle Axe.

☞ The Richmond Examiner tells in the following emphatic style, why Virginia favored the nomination of General Pierce. It is plainly because he is a man after her own heart. We ask liberal and progressive Democrats to read it, and see if there is anything in it, that would induce them to support Gen. Pierce:

"The more severe the test, the higher rises our estimate of Franklin Pierce. Until we examined his Congressional record, we did not believe that any such politician had ever lived north of the Potomac. In Congress, he was as invariably true to Southern Rights, as Mr. Calhoun himself; and every concatenation of circumstances in which he has since been placed, makes more evident his unswerving sincerity to his convictions. Every assault upon him only renders the truth more plain."

☞ In the year 1636, Samuel Baldwin, a gentleman of Hampshire, England, died, and on opening his will, it was found that he had ordered his body to be thrown into the sea, near which he lived. His reason for making this extraordinary disposal of his remains, was, that his wife, who was much younger than himself, and not on good terms with her husband, had frequently said to him that she would dance upon his grave.

MONUMENT TO AARON BURR.—The Princeton Whig says that a neat and plain monument of marble has been erected over the grave of Aaron Burr, lately. The inscription is "Aaron Burr, born Feb 6, 1756, died Sept. 14th, 1836. A Colonel in the army of the Revolution. Vice President of the United States, from 1801 to 1805."

☞ One of the best disinfecting agents for damp cellars and other mephitic localities, in common copperas. A few pounds of this agent dissolved in water and sprinkled over the obnoxious place will dissipate any unpleasant or offensive odors.

JULY COINAGE.—The number of gold pieces coined at the Philadelphia Mint in July was 400,838, value $5,000,000. Number of silver pieces, 1,838,238, value $5,037,902.—There were also 466,581 cents coined, value $9,665 99. Whole number of pieces coined, 2,250,675. Total value, $10,042,597 79.

CHOLERA.—On Friday last there were ten cases of cholera and four deaths, in Buffalo, and on Saturday five cases and no deaths.

MORE STEAMERS.—Two more first class steamers are to be immediately commenced at Buffalo. The dimensions are, 325 feet long, on deck, 39 feet beam, and 14 feet depth of hold. Burden 1800 tons each.

A CARGO OF GERMAN INFANTS.—The ship St. Denis, arrived at New York from Havre, with 326 passengers, on the 5th inst. Seventeen of this number were infants.

LOSSES BY FIRE IN BROOKLYN.—In Brooklyn, during the past three months, the losses by fires, amount to $120,000. The number of buildings consumed or partially damaged, was 38.

☞ The New York Tribune says: "The Telegraph says that Col. Thos. H. Benton has been elected a Representative in Congress from the St. Louis District, and we are rather glad of it."

VERMONT.—At a Convention of the "Independent Democracy" of the 3d District, A. Judson Rowell, of Troy, was nominated for Congress.

HOMESTEAD AND LAND BILL.—It is understood that the committee on public lands in the Senate have rejected the Homestead and Land Distribution Bills, by the following vote:—On the Homestead bill, Messrs. Baldwin and Dodge, voted aye; and Messrs. Felch, Pratt and Underwood, no. On Mr. Bennett's Land bill, Messrs. Pratt and Underwood, aye; and Messrs. Baldwin and Dodge, no.

CHEAP TRAVELING.—Cabin fare is only 50 cents from Galena to St. Paul, or intermediate ports.

MADISON & BELOIT RAILROAD.—At a late meeting of the Directors of this company, John Hackett, Esq., of Beloit, was chosen President, vice J. M. Keep, resigned.

☞ Dr. Utter is much distressed, because we are not a candidate for Congress, as he asserted some time ago.

REFRESHING.—The Watertown Register exults over the election of Col. Benton, regarding it as a great party triumph. Considering Col. Benton was an independent candidate, and supported by Whigs as well as Democrats, this is decidedly cool on the part of the Register.

☞ A Mrs. Gregg, of Wauwatosa, stabbed herself with a butcher knife yesterday.

NEW STEAMER.—Ward's new steamer, the Cleveland, arrived at our port yesterday. Like all of Wards' boats, she is a magnificent craft, and every way worthy of the name it bears. In dimensions, she is 200 feet in length; 37½ feet in breadth—over all, 50 feet; hold 11 feet; and 700 tons burthen. She has a low pressure engine with a cylinder of 46 inches, and 11 feet stroke. She was built by Degraff & Kendrick, of Detroit, and was set up under the direction of B. F. Owen. Among her officers are—Captain, C. C. Stannard; Clerk, A. E. Goodrich; Steward, N. N. West; Engineer, Charles Whitman. She is intended to run in connection with the Forrest City, between this city and Detroit. With the excellent management that will be sure to prevail, she will doubtless become a general favorite with the traveling public.—Cleve. Forest City.

GODFREY, THE WIFE KILLER.—This man, who murdered his wife at St. Paul, has been apprehended. We learn by a gentleman from Minnesota, that his wife disclosed, before she died, that he was one of a number, who murdered a pedlar in Grant county, Wis., some time since, and that measures had been taken to investigate the matter more thoroughly.—Madison Pal.

Essays on the Spiritual Condition of Christendom, and the Coming Destruction of Nations.

NUMBER II.

What Christianity Is.

To know whether the Churches have apostatized, we must first know what Christianity is.

Under the Patriarchal system, God appeared to Abram, and said, "I am the Almighty God; walk before me and be thou perfect." Two things are here to be noted, —first the ground of hope—"I am the Almighty God"—fully able to give you the required strength;—secondly the command—"walk before me and be thou perfect."

Abraham walked in the presence of God, as a child in the presence of a Father; he believed God; went out from his kindred into a strange land; dwelt on earth as a pilgrim; and looked for a City whose builder and maker is God.

Here we have an illustration of the life of a Christian. A christian walks in the presence of God, and takes the word of God, in all things, as the implicit guide and rule of faith and practice.

God made a covenant with Abraham, "and in thy seed shall all the Nations of the earth be blessed." This promise refers to Christ; and as connected with, and explained by, other passages, it means (so the father of John, the Baptist, says, speaking by the Holy Ghost) "that he (God) would grant us, that we, being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness, before him, all the days of our life." In other words, it means that the Lord would circumcise our hearts, and write his laws within us, that we actually should love him and keep his commandments, now in this life, and walk in his presence and be perfect.

The call of Abraham from his native land, and his dwelling as a pilgrim and a stranger on earth, looking for a Heavenly City, is a constant emblem of a Christian's life. This is confirmed by the exodus of Israel. The paschal lamb is a type of Christ. At the Exodus, the Israelites were commanded to eat of the paschal lamb, having their loins girded, so that their garments might not impede their march, having their shoes on their feet as on a journey, and pilgrim-staffs in their hands; and to eat it in haste, redeeming the time; for we have much to do, and not overmuch time to do it. All passovers were to be eaten in that way.—And Christ, our passover, is thus to be eaten by us.

The covenant was established that God would write his law on our hearts; but Israel, under the Mosaic system, was not made perfect. That dispensation was a figure of the Body of the Lord Jesus, and stood in meats, drinks and carnal ordinances, which could not make the conscience perfect.—But what the Body of Christ, or the flesh, could not do, the Spirit of Christ, actually does perform. Paul, in Romans, seventh Chapter, speaks of the Body of Christ (namely the flesh) and the Spirit of Christ as two husbands; and he illustrates his figure by speaking of himself as successively in these conditions,—the Body of the Lord Jesus, and the Spirit of the Lord Jesus.—He says a woman cannot have two husbands at the same time; but when the first husband dies, she may marry another. So during the life of the Body of Christ, the Church could not be married to another; for she was wedded to the Body of the Lord Jesus, which was not, however, able to make her perfect. But when the flesh, or the Body of the Lord Jesus died, then the Bride was free to be married to another, and did actually marry another. Whom! Even the same Lord Jesus Christ risen from the dead. And this second husband, the spirit of the Lord Jesus, does do what the first husband, the Body, did not, and could not do; that is, he makes his Bride perfect; for now she is one Spirit with the Lord, and brings forth fruit unto God. "For (says he) the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus, hath made me free from the law of sin and death."

Thus we see what Christianity is. It is to walk in the Spirit of Christ before God, and to be perfect. A Christian loves and serves God with the whole heart (this includes the will and the affections); the whole soul (this includes the subjection of all animal appetites to the Spirit); the whole strength (this includes talents, powers and influence and their results, so that when a man is converted to God all his property and ability are also converted to God); and the whole mind (this includes present knowledge and all growth as directed in 2 Pet. 1, 5–8); and he loves his neighbor as himself; therefore he knows and feels himself to be sent into the world as Christ was sent into the world; and he goes forth as Christ went forth to bring the world to the Savior.—Christ is the Savior, and saves the world by his atonement as well as in his other offices; and Christians, if necessary, lay down their lives, to bring the world to Christ, our Lord and God. This is the great mission of Christians.

This is Christianity. It is the Christianity, taught by Christ and his Apostles, and lived out by them and by the Apostolic Church. And from this Christianity, the Churches as a Body, Papal and Protestant, have apostatized. Christendom has a form of Godliness, without the power. And hence come our perilous times.

THE NORMAL INSTITUTE.

MESSRS. EDITORS:

As an observer, and one becoming a somewhat interested observer of the west, and particularly of Milwaukee, permit me to make a few suggestions in relation to one of its primary interests—its institutions of learning. In its liberality in this direction, it seems to me to fall short of most other places of the West. For example, the comparatively small village of Beloit has raised $12,000 for a college; the little village of Rockford $6,000 for a seminary; Racine $8,000 for a college; the village of Elgin $2,000 for its schools; Waukesha has given very liberally for its college; and the citizens of Chicago are making $1,000 subscriptions for the same object. A most commendable spirit of liberality pervades the west generally towards its institutions of learning, to which, I am afraid, this rich and fair city is an exception. I am induced to form this opinion by observing the apathy which has been manifested towards the Female Normal Institute. A vigorous effort has been making for a year in favor of this Institution, second in importance to none of those above mentioned. Such has been the importance attached to it, and the interest felt in this enterprise at the east, that individuals there have disinterestedly contributed three thousand dollars. A noble edifice is in progress, which will be one of the greatest, if not the greatest ornament of the city, and offer a stronger inducement than any one thing, to respectable and wealthy families to locate here; and an embarrassment is threatened to its completion for the want of twelve or fifteen hundred dollars. And will it be readily believed that this city, with its 24,000 inhabitants, after a year's effort, and an appeal to all the citizens, has raised but $3,000!—Open to all, not denominational in its character, but based upon the broad platform of liberality and Christian principle, it makes its appeal to all. In view of the importance of such an institution, I have been surprised at the frivolous excuses which many of our wealthy citizens make for withholding contributions to it. The good name of this city has already suffered, and will suffer more by such a course of indifference.

On the supposition that almost every one would be glad to manifest some regard for such an object, who are unable to give largely, a subscription of one dollar and under has been circulated. Many of the young men cheerfully and nobly responded to it, but I am told that others, who can spend their money freely at the theatre and concert, refused this small expression of their regard for this institution, at which the young ladies of this city are to be educated.

Their taste and degree of intellectual cultivation and refinement, can be guessed without a great degree of Yankee shrewdness.

But an opportunity is now presented for every one to make a small offering to this object, and for self gratification at the same time. The Baker Family have consented to give a concert on this (Tuesday) evening, for its benefit. It is to be hoped that the liberality of the community for these two combined objects, will be conspicuous. The Bakers have none of the airs of foreign opera singers, which are not very attractive to the plain common sense of Americans, but they have true American hearts, which are seen in their faces, and heard and felt in their song.

We are told that the owners of the boat gave them a free passage to this place for the occasion, the "States" feeds them gratuitously, and the Lessee furnishes the Hall without charge. Let the same liberality be universal, and let the Hall be once filled with the lovers of female education and genuine song. A LOOKER ON.

The Lost Path.

BY THOMAS DAVIS, THE IRISH POET.

Sweet thoughts, bright dreams, my comfort be,
All comfort else has flown;
For every hope was false to me,
And here I am, alone.
What thoughts were mine in early youth!
Like some old Irish song,
Brimful of love, of life, and truth,
My spirit gushed along.

I hoped to right my native isle,
I hoped a soldier's fame,
I hoped to rest in woman's smile,
And win a minstrel's name.
Oh! little have I served my land,
No laurels press my brow,
I have no woman's heart or hand,
Nor minstrel honors now.

But fancy has a magic power,
It brings me wreath and crown,
And woman's love, the self-same hour,
It smites oppression down.
Sweet thoughts, bright dreams, my comfort be,
I have no joy beside;
Oh! throng around, and be to me
Power, country, fame, and bride.

THE DEMOCRACY OF CHRISTIANITY:

OR AN

ANALYSIS OF THE BIBLE AND ITS DOCTRINES IN THEIR RELATION TO THE PRINCIPLE OF DEMOCRACY.

In Two Volumes, comprising 815 pages.

By WM. GOODELL.

Published by Cady & Burgess, 60 John st., New York.

THIS great work is strongly recommended by B. P. Aydelott, D. D., late President of Woodward College, Cincinnati; by Prof. Hudson, of Oberlin; by Hon. Amasa Walker, Secretary of State of Massachusetts; and by a great number of the first men of our country.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"We have read the book through very attentively, and can bear testimony to its great ability, and the soundness of its principles. * * * 'The very is every able one, and well adopted, as Caldwell used to say, for a thinking people, and no fair minded and intelligent reader can rise from a perusal of it without a higher appreciation of the Mosaic code, and of true democratic principles."—N. Y. Tribune.

"This work appears anonymously, but it discloses qualities of authorship of which the writer need not be ashamed. * * * He strikes at the root of the business at once. He traces the democratic principle as it is stated in all God's provisions for the Patriarchs and the Israelites in the clearest manner. His analysis of the tendency and character of the Mosaic Institute is particularly able. He discovers a degree of wisdom and benevolence in those provisions but little understood. We have never seen the political bearings and scope of the Mosaic law so strikingly portrayed. The present volume respects only the doctrines of the Old Testament—we hope the author will be encouraged to go on with the searching and impartial examination."—New York Evangelist.

"The author has given some beautiful illustrations, drawn from Scripture, showing that it abounds with democratic sentiment. * * * It is a work that should attract the attention of the thinking portion of society. The style is excellent, and the subject an interesting one."—American Statesman.

"This Citizen of the United States deserves a hearing. He is a strong thinker and an able writer—indeed he must be a man of great experience with the pen—* * * A sweeping from Genesis onward, but a ray of light escapes him, which can be construed into the dawning of those glorious popular institutions which we now enjoy. And he certainly finds a great deal to his purpose. * * * The truth is, the Mosaic code made advances towards democracy which stood alone for centuries, and when we take the strong glance of such a writer as this, our veneration of the Bible is placed on a very high footing."—Boston Chronotype.

"The subject of this volume is well handled, and justly pressed on the observation of the reader."—Democratic Review.

"We advise all classes to read, mark and inwardly digest this volume."—Ontario Messenger.

"The field of discussion opened is broad and rich; it has been ably explored, and its treasures of precious truth are revealed with a master's hand."—Oberlin Evangelist.

"The conception of this work is original, * * * We commend it to the perusal and careful study of all classes."—Olio Star.

"We have neither time nor space to give a general or extended notice of this invaluable production, but merely drop a hint, that our friends may not deprive themselves a single moment of a rich treat, but lay fast hold of it now."—Golden Rule.

GREAT WORK ON CIVILIZATION.
This great work can be had at OTT'S Bookstore, 275 East Water street. It is the work of the age. From a large number of liberal and highly complimentary notices of this work, from the religious and secular press, we only select the following:

"This admirable work is at length before us, and we hasten to inform our readers of the valuable addition, which has thus been made to the Literature of our country. The work is by far the most important of its kind, ever published in this country. It is in fact a complete library in itself, condensed and so arranged as to bring the whole question within the grasp of the humblest reader. It appears most appropriately at the present time, and will, no doubt, prove an instrument of great efficacy in the work of diffusing sound doctrines on the matter of which it treats."—Truth Teller. april22
